“ Sandra and Jerry, wife and children,
My heart bleeds for you in the loss from this life of your son, husband and father. I pray the Holy Comforter will abide with you and give you comfort for the love you shared. There are no words to take away the pain just love and sharing your pain.

“ I've knew this sweet man for over 20 years, we used to work in the outlets together where I worked with his soon to be Wife Kim, he always had a sweet smile and good humor! He was also my postman which I respect so much as my Father was also a postman. I would see Cory at my mailbox and we'd speak and laugh. Anyone who knew Cory are better for it and blessed. He is in Jesus' arms now, while we will forever miss him, we will see him again! May God bless his sweet family. His memory will live on!

“ I was very lucky to have gotten to spend quality time with Cory while I was OIC at Albertville. I drove him around and we talked. He spoke mostly of his family and how he knew from the first time he meet her, that she would be his wife. And the love for her never lessened. Oh he would smart off or make "mean" jokes about people, me included, but never about Kim or his boys (or dogs). I loved listening to him talk about feeding the snake and how he would check on the elderly people around him. Cory didn't want anyone to know it, but he had a heart of gold. I'm very thankful for getting that one on one time with him.
