“ Dearest Carol,
With deepest, most heartfelt sorrow, we extend our most sincere condolences to you, your children and grands, Kim's, siblings, family and friends, during this painful season...
As children, we spent countless, awesome and exciting times in the warmth of Aunt Katherine's home. It was so enjoyable dining at her delicious dinner table, sitting at her feet as she shared her profound love of God and family, listening to great storytelling and horsing around playing outside. Hanging with Kim, Ben and Andre was BIG FUN, too! Andre was the advisor, while Ben and Kim served as our big brothers. Those were the good ole days!
Though they're gone way too soon, fond memories of them all shall forever remain etched upon our hearts.
Please know you're in our prayers. Continue to look to the hills from whence cometh all of our help!
Love Always,
