February 16, 1958 - September 16, 2015

Carla Leach York of Guntersville died peacefully on September 16, 2015. She was 57.

Her life was spent as a caregiver, first as a registered nurse and then as a special education teacher. She enjoyed reading, movies, boating and most of all being a mother to her son Jake.

She was born in Sheffield, AL on February 16, 1958, to the late Edward G. and the late Frankie B. Leach. She grew up attending Mars Hill Bible School and Sheffield High School. She graduated from Northwest Community College in 1979 with an Associate Degree in Nursing. She moved to Huntsville in 1980 where she worked in the Neo-natal Intensive Care Unit, followed by ten years with the Red Cross, and she finished her nursing career in Home Health Care for Decatur General Hospital. She then transitioned her career to teaching by earning degrees from Southern Mississippi University. One of her most satisfying life experiences was the joy she received from helping her special needs students at Guntersville Elementary reach their full potential.

Ms. York is survived by her husband, Mark York and her son Jake York of Guntersville; her brother Edward Leach, Jr. and sister Wanda Timme (Duane) of Florissant, MO

“ I am so glad that I got to meet Carla. She opened up her home and her family with open arms. We had so much fun on the lake and she was very sweet to me. She showed strength and kindness to others and doing that she was a good example.

Prayers for you and your family.
