“ CJ was one of the best kids I ever knew that hung around my house with all the other kids in the neighborhood. It was always a yes ma'am no ma'am, kind and respectful. CJ was always laughing and making the other kids laugh. He really enjoyed playing football or aggravating the girls. They would hit the volleyball back and forth to each other. He loved going down to Cameron and Casey's with some of the other kids to swim. I can remember one time, Kelly and Charles was going over to 88 buffet to eat and I ask CJ if he wanted to go and he did. So while we were riding over there we came up with this story. We're going to tell them when we get there, he was walking around and I saw him and ask what was going on and he said him and CW got into it and CW left him. So anyway, that is what we did and they were so mad at CW and was was saying all kinds of stuff and then he couldn't hold back he started laughing so hard and so did I and then they were all wild at me and him for telling them that. Well anyway it was funny to him and myself. Well CJ, man I just can't believe you are gone. It just keeps playing over and over in my head that, I didn't know all that was going through your head at times but I could always see that you were carrying alot around. I know you talked about some of it but I knew their was alot more that you wasn't saying, like the last time you were here at my house and you walked over to the pasture and was just looking and shaking your head, I knew their was more. AND TO ANYONE, I MEAN ANYONE, WHO EVER HURT YOU IN ANY WAY, THEIR WILL BE A PAY DAY FOR EACH AND EVERY ONE OF THEM AND GOD WILL MAKE THEM PAY. I LOVE YOU SON MORE THAN YOU EVER KNEW AND I WILL SEE YOU AGAIN. I KNOW WITHOUT A DOUBT CJ, YOU ARE AT PEACE WITH YOURSELF AND I KNOW YOU HAVE KNOW MORE PAIN.
