

Deborah Gail St. John

January 23, 1965 - January 17, 2015

Deborah St. John peacefully left the confines of her earthly body on January 17, 2015. Her life talent shines in each soul she touched through her work with precious young people who needed specialized life coaching in elementary education. She had a wonderful hobby as a landscape artist, and loved spending countless hours on Lake Guntersville with her family and life-long friends. She ministered in the First Methodist Church of Guntersville with children's music, adult choir, and brought the living Christmas tree to the Tennessee River Basin. Deborah was preceded in passing by her daughter, Mary Kathryn. As her testimony shined brightly, she passes the torch of love, service, and respect on to her children, Alex, Charity Grace, Patrick, and Christopher; who are being shepherded into adulthood by her husband, Lane. She watches over her extended families of a sister, Rebecca; a brother, Steven; three brothers-in-law, Ross, Scott, and Jonathan; multiple nephews, nieces, and others related by blood, marriage, or through the family of Christ Jesus.
