

Galeon Webster Campbell

May 4, 1945 - September 15, 2023

Rev. Galeon Webster Campbell

Rev. Galeon Campbell of Horton, Alabama, passed away peacefully in his sleep on September 15, 2023.

He was a former Baptist Minister, a cabinet maker, and a retired Rural Letter Carrier, serving communities across Northeast Alabama.

He was born in Albertville, Alabama in 1945 and grew up in the Fairview Community in Cullman County.

He graduated from Fairview High School, Samford University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

(Louisville). In 1965, he married Marsha Dale Horton, of Horton, Alabama. The two had been childhood sweethearts, having been introduced to each other by their parents.

He accepted a call to the ministry in 1963, and served his first church, Loachapoka First Baptist Church in 1967. Later, he also served congregations in Kentucky and Indiana, before returning to Alabama.

In 1977, he pastored Union Hill Baptist Church in Oneonta and later served Guntersville First Baptist Church, Northside Baptist Church, Shoal Creek Baptist Church, Red Hill Baptist Church and Warrenton Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife and two sons: Mel Campbell (Heidi Rowe) and Jonathan Campbell (Deanna). In addition, he also enjoyed the love and support of seven grandchildren: Emma Bustin (Ian), Catherine Rowe, Walter Campbell, Joy Campbell (Robby Hammonds), Ben Campbell, Betsy Campbell and Charlie Campbell. And one greatgrandchild: Harvey Bustin.

He is also survived by his sister Anne Burgess (Marshall), Mike Campbell (Kathy) and

Lewis Campbell

(Sue), as well as many nieces and nephews.

In addition to a love of pastoral ministry and serving his congregations, Rev. Campbell had a lifelong love of woodworking, Western literature, and mission work.

Flowers are accepted. Donations in his name can be made to Victory Baptist Church, 1644 O'Brig Ave.;

Guntersville, Ala. 35976 and will be used to help further mission work of the church.
