Psalms 23

A Psalm of David.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Amen

“ I miss you Dada, every single day from the last day I saw you, you had been on my mind. Though my heart had been conflicted with many emotions, one thing is for certain is that I will always love and cherish you and every moment we spent together. I really wanted you to meet Junior and of course see you again. I have so many stories to tell you and we still had time we needed to share . I feel you around from time to time and I saw you at the park with my friend . I always catch glimpses of you flying around . I'll always be your little canary, singing all the songs for you to hear even if it's off key and horrible . Kick your feet up and crack you open a cold one, I know Jesus has some good beer to offer in heaven . I love you so much and I'll see you again some day !

“ There has not been, nor will there be, a day when I go to the state archives or to Mount Pleasant and think....Gotta ask George if he needs anything looked up or a gravestone checked. And then, I just smile and cherish the memories. Rest in peace, my friend. And may God bless you, Michelle and help console you in these difficult days.
