“ Colonel Gamble was a pioneer for the National Guard Association of Alabama and its Insurance Trust. He was the Association’s first Executive Director and the first Administrator for the Insurance Trust. He was a founder of the National Guard Executive Directors Association and its first President, and in that capacity he testified before the U.S. Congress to secure Payroll Deduction for ALL the National Guard Associations life insurance programs throughout the entire United States.
Colonel Gamble was a visionary and a true PATRIOT...he will be missed.
