“ I have so many memories I wouldn't know how to choose just one. The day he was born he was my best friend. He and I didn't always see eye to eye but we always loved each other heart to heart. He tried to be a tough guy in front of me but I knew how gentle he really was and I know he loved his mom very much as I still do him.

“ That night when he was young and he wanted to come to my house and yes camp out and sleep over all night at my house. And he stayed all night we had a blast. To some of y'all you would think what's so special but to me it was considering I wasn't his favorite person or I didn't think I was. I still remember that night so plain us in the tent and him being totally amazed at the things I could make go bang lol. It shocked his mom that he wanted to stay with me to. He loved my homemade chilli I sent some home with him and he didn't even want to share with his mom and funny as it seems I haven't cooked it in awhile and the day before this happened nothing do me but make a big pot and I didn't get a chance to send him some it's still here. Fly High It I love you
