“ When they made Johnny they broke the mold as I remember going fishing with him and catching so many crappie we had a hard time getting them all cleaned. Then afterwards, making even more special memories by going to a restaurant and pretending to be Eric Clapton and the rest of the group was my roadies. The best of all memories was when Johnny broke his foot and I had the privilege of him teaching me how to drive a 18 wheeler not only an 18 wheeler but a piece of equipment that was worth about $5 million and he trusted me with that. He will be greatly missed!
