“ We are deeply saddened to learn of John G's passing 😞 and extend our most sincere condolences 🙏 to the family. Our last encounter with him was a few years ago as we were passing through G'ville. And, of course, you can't go that way w/o at least circling The Hill! 😊 He immediately recognized me (Pookie), but not Debbie. It was great catching up with him then, and we look forward to seeing him again on the other side... Be encouraged family, death isn't the end for those who fall asleep in Christ! Love 💕 and Prayers, Rosetta and Deborah (Pookie and Debbie - Mrs. Odell Moore's nieces)

“ *Quirky, unpredictable, funny, thoughtful, generous. Johnny G was all of those and he will be greatly missed by everyone in our family. His thoughtfulness and generosity were front and center when he would send by Greg fish he'd caught, pecans he'd picked – and shelled -- and other garden delights to our mom, who lives in Atlanta. Our sincerest condolences to the Alexander Family.
