“ I moved across the street from Mary when I was 5 years old and she was 6. We were neighbors until We graduated high school. I spent many happy days playing with her and her siblings. We reconnected several years ago and shared many happy memories with her, Owen and Jean. We always laughed so much. I know she will be greatly missed. She has joined Harry and her parents, and Bill. I was blessed to have known her. I pray for peace for her family.
