

Norman Ray Moore

January 26, 1937 - June 19, 2013

The world has lost a great man; Norm was born in Whitting Indiana. He grew up in Highland, Indiana and Griffith, Indiana. He is a graduate of Griffith High School and an ASE Automotive graduate in automotive and air-conditioning repair. He retired to Guntersville for rest and relaxation. Norm was a veteran of the U.S. Army, a steel worker and he worked in Industrial Maintenance and worked in forming metal and automotive bodywork. He was a part owner of a small engine and lawn mower adventure. Norman liked to tinker on small engines, and pass the time at the airport being an EAA member, and he was a casual fisherman. From time to time he would be “wheeling and dealing” at an auction or the flea market. He was a man of many talents and a jack of all trades and a perfectionist. He would always say a quote from his father; “If a job is worth doing it’s worth doing right” He was a man of high standards, belonging to the Shrines and Masons always willing to help out fellow brothers. He will be greatly missed. His outlook and motto; “It’s not what it is, It’s what it can be”

Mr. Moore is survived by his loving wife Virginia Louise Moore, Sons; Mark Moore and Steven (Crystal) Moore, Brothers; Kenny, Edwin and Lawrence Moore.

He is preceded in death by his Father and Mother; Ray and Lillian Moore, Brother; James and Sister; Evelyn Moore Wilkins.
