Oscar was born in Brookville, Indiana. Early in life he proudly served in the United States Navy. After his service he married his one and only love, Maxine Turner, on November 16th, 1957 in Covington, Kentucky, where he worked as a mechanic. In 1971 the family travelled down the Tennessee River chain on a 29 foot cabin cruiser boat built from the ground up by Oscar and his brother, Elmer, to Guntersville and settled in Claysville. Oscars mechanical career continued while he travelled the United States as a truck driver for many years. He then followed his entrepreneurial spirit and opened Rowland Car Sales. Oscar was a car fanatic and enjoyed restoring classic cars for resale. He valued his customers and even opened a second venture, Bama Bass and Buck, a hunting and fishing supply store with his son, Curtis. One of his favorite activities was his daily trip to town for coffee. Oscar was a friend to many and a stranger to few, but above all, he was a wonderful husband, loving father and cherished grandfather. To his family, he hung the moon and was the rock we knew we could count on. He will be deeply missed.
