

Pamela Jean Hayes

March 1, 1963 - June 27, 2021

Pamela Jean Hayes of the Mount Olive community died Sunday, June 27. She was 58. She grew up in Sims community until moving to the Mount Olive area in 2006. She worked as a receiving clerk at Walmart for over 25 years and at American Apparel.

Cooking for everyone, reading novels, and watching Hallmark movies and crime dramas were some of her favorite hobbies. She loved bringing joy to children, especially on Halloween and Christmas when she could shower them with goodies and presents. Her family was always her first and most cherished priority.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Johnny Hayes; her parents, W L and Viola Mahan; her brother, Kenneth (Butch) Mahan, sister, Suzette Mahan Peppers, and niece, Ginger Sims.

She is survived by her daughters, Lacey and Sarah Hayes; her brothers Hal Mahan (MaryAnn), David Mahan, and Rickey Mahan (Judy); her in-laws, Violet Mahan, Lowell Hayes (Joyce) and Danny Hayes (Lisa); and 40 nieces and nephews.

The funeral was Friday, July 2, 2021, at Guntersville Memorial Chapel with Bro. Chris Sims and Bro. Thomas Mahan officiating. Burial was in Pleasant Hill #2 Cemetery.
