“ Prayers go up for the family. My memories of him was when he was the principal at the Prattville Intermediate School when I was in 6th and 7th grade and then was the principal at Prattville High School when I attended from 1978-1981. He also was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church. He touched my family's life and was a great influence of my high school years.
Now you are at rest in Jesus' arms. Shalom, until we meet again.

“ Paul was indeed a man with a servant's heart. Yet, my memories are ones of a friend and neighbor. After we moved to Huie Street in Prattville, Al in 1984, Paul and Barbara soon became dear friends. We shared times of joy and frustration raising our children, laughter and close times as neighbors, many afternoon walks that I later learned Paul would tell Barbara he hoped the phone call wasn't me wanting to walk, and neighborhood experiences that are too many to share. I remember crying hard the day they moved to Guntersville. I was losing my coffee buddy, Barbara, and my walking buddy, Paul. Yet the one thing that stands out the most was his love for God and the desire that his children and friends all know about his Savior. Last week, Paul's faith became sight.

“ Prattville High School Class of 1981 just celebrated our 42nd Class Reunion, and Mr. Meigs was certainly a big part of our shared memories and conversations. He was a devoted educator as our principal, a great encourager to the sports teams, band program and others. He will be fondly remembered by his students. Go, PHS Lions!!
