

Mr. Ronnie Lewis Allen

September 7, 1969 - March 30, 2025

Ronnie Lewis Allen was born to Janie M. Sneed and James Allen Jr. in Lubbock, Texas. His mother later married Lawrence Curtis Miller, (LC) and together they raised Ronnie and his siblings in Seattle, Washington. Through the guidance of his parents, he was introduced to God at an early age. This guided him throughout his life and provided a foundation for the shaping of his character, values, relationships, and unwavering commitment to helping others.

He attended Kirkland Seventh-day Adventist School in his early years and later Roosevelt High School, where he developed a passion for coaching gymnastics—a passion that would define his life's work. He quickly excelled as a coach. Even as a high school student, he took on the responsibility of coaching, shaping the futures of young gymnasts with his guidance and expertise. His ability to inspire, teach, and elevate athletes led many to achieve great success, including one who went on to compete at the Olympic level. For Ronnie, coaching was more than a career—it was his true calling.

Following high school, Ronnie pursued higher education at Oakwood College in Huntsville, Alabama. During his time in Huntsville, he became a father for the first time, welcoming his daughter Tori Nicole Allen. As his journey continued, he moved to Georgia, where his second daughter, Taylor Noel Allen, was born, followed by the birth of his youngest son, Timothy Lewis

Allen, in Tennessee. His children were his greatest joy, and he devoted himself to providing them with love, wisdom, and unwavering support.

Beyond his professional achievements, Ronnie was a man of deep love and commitment. He spent his later years with his beloved wife, Traci Rhines-Allen, with whom he shared an unbreakable bond. Their love was filled with laughter, partnership, and unwavering devotion—there was nothing he wouldn't do for her, and their relationship was a true testament to unconditional love.

Ronnie's passing leaves a profound void in the hearts of those who loved him.

He is deeply mourned by his siblings, Ricky J. Allen (Annunciata Allen), Juanita Allen-Smith (Bruce Smith), and Shalunda Allen-Sherrod. He also leaves to mourn his nephew Ricky Allen Jr. (Audrey Allen), nieces RiAnna Allen, and Terri Allen Greer.

Ronnie was also cherished by his extended family, including Sandra Rhines (mother in-law), stepson Christopher J. Rhines (Rhiannon Bonner), and Latanya Rhines (sister in-law), half-brother in law, Jarmare Mathis (Emily Mathis) and Randy Alexander (lifelong friend). All of whom held a special place in his heart. He is also survived by four adorable grandchildren, Kingdom, Ocean, Inori, and Iliana, a host of loving nieces, nephew, aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends who will forever cherish his memory. Ronnie was preceded in death by his mother, Janie Marie Miller (LC Miller, stepfather); father, James Allen Jr., brother, Terry Sneed, and niece Shanika Jimerson.

Ronnie Lewis Allen lived a life of faith, purpose, love, and dedication, and his memory will be cherished forever.
