“ My condolences, Shari, to you, your family and friends. I was Sammie's chaplain at the 83rd in Korea, 1978-79. Serving under his command was such a joy! He was a wise leader, dedicated soldier, fun guy and good friend. I still have my ancient crock pot, often used to cook meals in Sammie's hooch on the hill at Camp Ames. Years later, I envied tales of his and your sailing adventures! I am certain he has reserved interesting activities for us in Heaven. Cannot wait to join him for a long catch-up chat. Love to you and the blessings and comfort of our Lord.
