May 30, 1966 - April 22, 2024

Shannon L. Parsons, 57, of Guntersville, passed away on April 22, 2024 in Birmingham, AL.

Visitation will be 12:00pm until 2:00pm Saturday April 27, 2024.

Shannon was born in Columbia, TN to Sonny Parsons and Marti Taylor on May 30 1966. He married Margaret (Gigi) Parsons on September 28, 1991 in Aiken SC, and they have been married 33 years. He worked as a Mechanical Contractor in HVAC for many years. He was a veteran and served in the Army and the Army National Guard.

Shannon is survived by his wife, Gigi Parsons; his children, Tyler Parsons (Anna) and Taylor Parsons; his sisters, Suni Hodges (Robert) and Barrington Bagwell; and his grandson, Milo Parsons.

Shannon (Shan) was the type of person who was always ready to jump in and help out whenever he could and never met a stranger. Shan was always ready with a big smile and whatever adventure was up next. He loved his family very much and said his grandson, Milo, was an answer to prayers.

During his life, Shan coached on many recreational center leagues and even started the Guntersville Peewee football league. Shan graduated from Guntersville High School in 1984. Throughout his life and career, Shan met and touched many lives with his caring personality and generosity.

Shannon will be greatly missed by Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, cousins, In-laws and so many friends.

“ I have so many wonderful fun memories of Shannon. I was there when he was born and remember the happiness and joy he brought to his dad, Sonny and my sister, Marti. who lived in Birmingham close to us at the time. We spoiled ourselves with anything his little heart desired. He never seemed to waiver, grew up to be the most selfless kid in the family, along with Scott, his cousin. I remember him playing with his little toys, riding his little wheels, pushing his little quacker and running across the floor with a little football to give to his dad to pitch for him. He was happy when they were together. He was his dad's best subject. Times changed things but not Shannon's love for a good laugh. The last words he said to me. "Not me, Aunt Sarah, but the kid's might". That was a few years ago. I wasn't 85 at the time and could remember better. Gigi, Your children are beautiful and looking at their pictures now, I see how much I regret being so far away from watching them grow to the beautiful people they are now..I'm so proud of all of you, and the only consolation I have is to know that Shannon is no longer in pain, even tho he is part of the joy in my heart where he'll live, as long as I do and every now and then, he'll come out of a memory and go clogging through my mind. My smile gets broader when he starts those crazy antics with cousin Scott, and he joins Shannon and they'll clogg or buck dance or whatever you call it and then start joking around, UNTIL the phone rings, or the buzzer sounds because the cornbread's done, then it's back to the real world. Well, I need a good laugh every now and then , and Shannon provides it more than anyone knows. God bless you GiGi and I know God has a plan for you as he does for all of us. Jesus is with me every step I make and It's wonderful to know Ill see Shannon soon. I can't wait to see him smiling without the pain that couldn't tarnish his heart of gold. I'd bet on it. "Hi Aunt Sarah, guess who all's here"? I love all of you GiGi. I know he was proud of those beautiful kids. RIP SHANNON
