“Born the same week, living in same house, and sharing cribs, wash tubs, sand piles, and mischief, I could never call him “Uncle” Steve. He was my playmate, my brother, my friend. This is to let you know a little about him.

Steven Phillip Moore, 68, passed away in his home August 11, 2021. He was a beloved husband, father, uncle, and friend.

Steve was born March 25, 1953, in Cullman, Alabama, to Phillip Hershell Moore and Sudie Bell Gibbs. He attended West Point High School and University of Alabama at Birmingham, where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree. He worked for UAB for a few years and then began a long career at Amerex, from where he retired in 2019. After retiring, Steve and his wife Nell fulfilled a long-time dream and bought home and acreage in the country and moved to Grant, Alabama.

Steve loved his family. He attended and filmed all the activities and dance recitals of his two children, Phillip and Stephanie and was always on call for any need. As the “baby” of eight children, loved his brothers and sisters and stayed close to all of them, keeping the ties strong even after the death of their parents. Steve was a family man.

Steve will be missed by all his family. He is predeceased by his parents, Phillip Hershell Moore and Sudie Bell Gibbs Moore; one brother, Allen D. Moore (Elsie); and two sisters, Athlene Spradling (Maxie) and Audry Goode. Steve is survived by his wife, Nell Kennamer Moore, his two children, Phillip Moore and Stephanie M. Nabors (Evan); three brothers, Jimmie Moore (Patricia), John Alton Moore (Shirley), and John S. Moore (Patricia), and one sister, Linda Moore Graham; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

We love you, Steve, and we miss you.
