“ My husband was a good man. A Godly man. He only wanted to use his gifts as a Chiropractor to help those in need. Always said “I would rather have my riches in Heaven than here on earth”. We did not have very much money but we had what we needed. Now he’s with his Savior. A wonderful husband , father and grandfather. We will always miss him.

I'm so very sorry to hear of Mr. Creel's passing. He was my chiropractor for many many years. He always went out of his way to help me and work me in. My family used him also. He will truly be missed. He was a special man.
