“ Growing up, those long, after 1am calls he made to Mom (his Sister Lois) when he served in the Army during Vietnam. All my visits to see Uncle Terry and the family in Arab after I joined the Army in 1982. I traveled more there while stationed at Forts Gordon, Campbell, & McPherson to see family and once with Mom & Dad with me when they were on a visit with me at Fort Campbell. My first time seeing Terry as a Soldier, he took me to a Restaurant in Arab for lunch and it seemed we talked all day about the Army. I also cherished the Christmas's growing up with Uncle Terry, Aunt Joyce & Terry Michael. R.I.P.
