Tommy worked many years at Huntsville Hospital and then retired to enjoy his first love, Guntersville Lake. He was a wonderful son, father, grandfather and spent 44 years with the love of his life, Anita.

Tommy was always the life of the party enjoying fishing, going to yard sales, rebuilding anything and everything but most of all spending time with his grandchildren. He was always happiest when surrounded by those he loved and was blessed to spend his last day enjoying his wife and his grandchildren.
