“ *Some random memories I have of Tommy:
One of my earliest memories is him playing football with us kids in the front yard.
Y'all taking me to Opryland in that Charger.
Going fishing in his green boat.
That hot summer when he was working with the crew that was widening hwy 69 up the mountain and we would toss him drinks as we drove by.*

The main memory I have is...There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for his family.

“ *Tommy took Brad and I Bass fishing in his boat when we were little,i guess i was around 8 or 9.
I had just put a big ole chew of Red Man in my jaw, standing there acting like i knew how to bass fish, i leaned forward to spit and it went all over the carpet and the side of his new boat, Tommy looks down at me grinning ,while slowly reeling in his line and says "John Boy you might need to practice your spittin, we are sittin in the middle of a 69 thousand acre lake and you managed to miss the lake and hit my boat.."
Love you Tommy!*

“ One of my fondest memories of "Tummy", Randy and me, him and Carolyn were at their house on Hopwood one Saturday night. Thiller had just came out and we spent the entire night listening, dancing and laughing. He was a big boy but I gotta tell y'all, he had some moves. RIP Brother. We'll miss you so much❤️
