“ Tony was a great friend to me and we had many good times together growing up in Claysville. Tony was a model citizen who treated everyone with respect. He was a super athlete and we were always getting the neighborhood kids together for ballgames. I can't recall an incident where Tony ever had a fight or engaged in an argument with any of our neighborhood friends. Tony had wonderful parents, Mr Wallace and Mrs Josie, and sisters, Betty, Linnie, and Sandra. I will always cherish my early life around the Randolph family, as well as the other families in the Claysville neighborhood. Tony also raised a beautiful family and I know they will miss him dearly. He will also be remembered for his committed service to our country and his home community of Guntersville. While I am sad because of Tony's passing, I know he lived an honorable life and is now reaping the rewards of that. Eddie Lee Walker
